DISCOVER WESTERN AUSTRALIA

WA offers diverse opportunities to live, work, study or invest. From white sandy beaches along the coast and spectacular outback gorges in the north, to lush vineyards and forests of the south west and the golden landscapes of the east.

No matter what kind of lifestyle you're after, you'll find it in WA.

With hot, dry summers and cool, dry winters, the Mid West region has a diversified economy based around agriculture, mining and fishing – the perfect location to start your new life.

The capital of Western Australia, Perth, is a friendly, vibrant and progressive city like no other, offering a wonderful lifestyle for people of all ages.

With plenty of sunshine, fresh air and more opportunities to enjoy life with friends and family, it's understandable why more migrants move to Perth than almost any other Australian city.

Known for its magnificent wildflowers, the Wheatbelt has a rich agricultural history and its vibrant economy is also supported by construction, fisheries and retail.

The dynamic and evolving South West region offers spectacular nature and diverse employment opportunities, with mining and minerals forming the region's largest industry sector.

The Pilbara region is full of surprises with spectacular gorges and waterfalls, and vast red deserts. It's also vital to Australia's economy, with its oil, gas and mining industries accounting for 30% of the country's resources.

Situated in the south eastern corner of WA, Goldfields-Esperance is the largest region.

The Goldfields economy is based on gold and nickel processing, while further south near Esperance, wheat, canola and barley make up 80% of the agricultural economy.

MIGRATION PATHWAYS AND ADVICE

MIGRATION PATHWAYS TO WESTERN AUSTRALIA

Migration in Australia is made up of three streams: humanitarian, family and skilled. The stream suitable for you depends on many factors including your age, occupation and employment status.

To find out if you are eligible to apply for an Australian visa under one of these streams, visit the Department of Home Affairs (Home Affairs) Visa Finder at immi.homeaffairs.gov.au/visas/getting-a-visa/visa-finder ↗

MIGRATION ADVICE

If you would like to appoint someone to provide immigration assistance, they must be either:

- ▷ a registered migration agent;
- ▷ a legal practitioner; or
- ▷ an exempt person.

The Home Affairs website has useful information to help you appoint a suitably qualified and experienced person to assist you.

For more information visit immi.homeaffairs.gov.au/help-support/who-can-help-with-your-application/overview ↗

WESTERN AUSTRALIA'S BUILDING AND CONSTRUCTION INDUSTRY IS THRIVING!

Strong economic growth and low unemployment rates are making skilled workforce needs a priority for the State Government.

CONSTRUCTION VISA SUBSIDY PROGRAM

The Western Australian Government has invested $11 million in the Construction Visa Subsidy Program (CVSP) to support skilled migration visa pathways to fill in-demand construction occupations.

The CVSP will provide grant payments of up to $10,000 per skilled migrant, offsetting costs such as migration agent fees, visa application fees and relocation expenses.

For a step-by-step guide on how to apply for the CVSP for employers or independent skilled migrants, visit migration.wa.gov.au/our-services-support/construction-visa-subsidy-program.

CONSTRUCTION MIGRATION OFFICE

Our dedicated team provides end-to-end support, assisting with the Skilled Migrant Employment Register, offering educational resources, and connecting you to existing services.

Send an email to jobconnect@dtwd.wa.gov.au, and one of our friendly Construction Migration Officers will contact you.
